DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: in paragraph 20, line 1, "elevational" should read --perspective--.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. A substitute specification excluding the claims is required pursuant to 37 CFR 1.125(a) because the preliminary amendment to the specification introduced a new paragraph numbering different from the originally filed one, this is confusing since the old numbering of the same paragraphs in the originally filed specification was not canceled or appropriately updated.

A substitute specification must not contain new matter. The substitute specification must be submitted with markings showing all the changes relative to the immediate prior version of the specification of record. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. An accompanying clean version (without markings) and a statement that the substitute specification contains no new matter must also be supplied. Numbering the paragraphs of the specification of record is not considered a change that must be shown.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-3, 6-10, 13-16 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jagt (US Patent 5,181,440).

Jagt discloses a device comprising a base 45, a lever arm 36 having a first end and a second end, the first end of the lever arm pivotally connected to the base and a puller arm 60 pivotally connected to the lever arm between the first end and the second end of the lever arm, see figure 3. Applicant should note that the recitation of the intended use of the device has not been given any patentable weight. A recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. See In re Casey, 370 F.2d 576, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 312 F.2d 937, 939, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963). In the instant case, the device of Jagt is capable of performing the intended use.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4, 5, 11, 12 and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. Claim 19 is allowed.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
